A PLAYLIST FOR YOUR WEEK

FROM YOUR MUSIC TEAM

In response to the racial tensions in some parts of the world today, especially south of the border, we have chosen to feature African and African-American artists this morning.

We are dedicating these songs to the millions of black people who have suffered and continue to suffer the indignities and inhumanity of discrimination and violence.

We hope you will enjoy the lyrics, melodies, and beautiful harmonies of singers whose bearing demonstrates an inner strength and peace as they proclaim the gospel of Jesus.

During the worship service, Daniel poses 4 questions.
Click on the link to be taken to the online survey of these questions.

For those without a computer, fill in the answers and drop this sheet off to the church mailbox. OR call the church office and we can enter your responses online.

The answers to these questions will help us as we plan the re-opening of the church.

1. What has been the most important connection point to church for you?
2. What faith practice (s) has/have been most important to you?
3. What "non-church" thing has been life-giving for you?
4. Something else that I have learnt is:

Welcome Back Renate

We are excited that Renate Dau Klaassen is rejoining the staff after being laid off the last few months due to COVID-19. Contact information for Renate is on the last page of the bulletin.

Summary Donation Reports

If you would like to know your total givings for the first 6 months of 2020, please contact the church office. We can provide you with a total over the phone or email you a PDF printout.

Vacation

The church office will be closed for a few days while Emily is away on vacation. Given the current situation, she will continue to answer the phone and check emails. It may take longer than normal to receive a reply. Arrangements have been made to ensure any donations dropped off at the church will be picked up each day.

Correction

In some previous communications we gave credit to making school kit bags to the wrong person. We would like to give credit to Elfriede Schimann and Helen Epp for their making of the bags that were donated to MCC last month. Our apologies for this miscommunication.

Who is in Your Circle?

We are aware that there are many in the congregation that may not be aware of how to access the online services, how to receive a bulletin or watch the weekly devotions.

We hope that those who can access these will reach out to those who may not have a computer and can offer to watch together. As families begin to expand their circle we hope you can include family members who may not have access to online materials.

If you are someone that may not have a family circle to join, contact a member of the Pastoral team or the church office. We will help find a way for you to receive the services and online content.

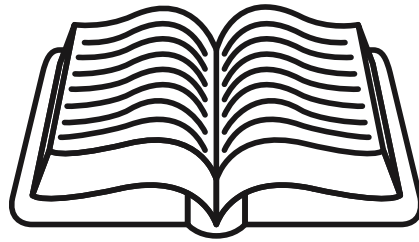

God's Story, God's Song

MCEC believes households can be centres of worship and mission, and the last three months have brought this into reality in a new way. In order to support the households of MCEC in this, we are giving you this gift as a faith formation resource. MCEC invites households in our congregations to take advantage of this gift.
