Music Corner

A PLAYLIST FOR YOUR WEEK

FROM YOUR MUSIC TEAM

Around this time of year, I always think about the summers spent chaperoning our youth at Kingdom Bound. I don't know what makes me smile the most, the skits around the camp fire, the sketchy trailers or spider webbed showers. Mostly I think it reminds me of watching our youth growing into the amazing adults they have become. Those youth are now leading in our church, in Sunday School and Worship, they are parents now raising little ones just like I was in those days.

Yes, there were roller coasters and cotton candy but there was also Worship services and guest preachers. What made Kingdom Bound so amazing, was the absolutely stellar lineup of bands and musical artists we were introduced to. As our youth were volunteering in the music tents and back stage we were able to meet so many of the artists and talk to them about the music and the inspiration behind their songs. I have to admit even I, the lover of all forms of music, had to really try to love bands like 'Skillet' and 'Disciple'. But, they grew on me. I own their CD's and have their songs on my Spotify playlists. 'Superchick', I still quote the words to their song "Bowling Ball". Where was that song when I was growing up?

The songs in my playlist today may not be your music. Give them a chance, it wasn't mine the first time I heard it either. 'Skillet's' song "Angels Fall Down" opens with lead singer John Cooper praying with an entire auditorium of youth. That is exactly what KB felt like. This collective group all worshipping together in song and praising God. It was the first time I would hear Paul Baloche sing, now I have the opportunity to fill our sanctuary with his songs. I know praise & worship songs are not for everyone. For me, the contemporary music of today is just as impactful on my Spiritual Life as the Hymns of my younger years were. I hope that one or two of these songs speaks to you.

Welcome Back Rachael

We are excited to announce Rachael is returning to work on a part time basis. Please contact Rachael at her church email: rachael@redbrickchurch.ca which has been reactivated.

Looking for Home Church Leaders!

As we seek how to congregate in this time of crisis, our government has advised that we could meet in gatherings of up to 10 people. To that end, one hopeful way we could reconnect in the Fall through this time of COVID is through home churches! However, in order to do home church, we need leaders! If you or someone you know is interested in possibly helping us to lead this initiative, please contact Chris Hutton and we'll see what we can do in the Fall!

Important Email Coming This Week - Reopening

As we prepare for the church reopening, we are launching REALM to the congregation. This coming week, those church members and friends of the congregation that have email address, will receive an invitation to add a password to your REALM account.

On Friday August 7 an E-News blast went out that had a link to some introduction videos on the process. These are also available by clicking here. It is very important to watch the videos and reply to the email and set up your account.

This will be how we will register to attend Worship Services in the coming weeks. Even if you don't think you will attend, please watch the videos and complete the registration process. If you have issues or questions please contact the church office.

Reopening For Those Without Email

As we look at reopening and having pre-registration for Worship Services, we know many do not use computers or have email. You can most definitely still attend a service and pre-register. You can either have someone who does have account add you as a guest. Alternatively, just call the church office and let me know, and I will add you onto the registration list. Whatever method is best for you is good for us.
