Music Corner

A PLAYLIST FOR YOUR WEEK

FROM YOUR MUSIC TEAM

In coming up with a playlist for this week, I put together songs that I've been listening to recently, or ones that have been on my heart. It's amazing to see how God is always working, even through music from across the spectrum of styles and generations. Three themes really emerged to me while putting this together.

Faith, Trust & Community During this strangest season of life, sensational news stories have taken over, and it's easy to see what divides us. People are seemingly looking for what divides us, rather than what brings us together. In many aspects, community, in every sense of the word, is lacking. Casting judgement is at an all-time high.

When we put our faith in God, trust the direction He is taking us in life, and put efforts into building community rather than tearing it down, we are doing Jesus' work on Earth.

Some of these music videos include people joyfully worshiping together. I remember living in London, England in 2011, watching the Royal Wedding with hundreds of thousands of people, when Guide Me O, Thou Great Redeemer was sung. Regardless of religious beliefs, the masses could respect and appreciate this moment.

May these songs remind us of three things:

- Remind us to continue to trust God
- Remind us that He is faithful in all seasons of life
- Remind us that even though we may be physically separated, we are a strong and loving community.

Welcome Back Rachael

We are excited to announce Rachael is returning to work on a part time basis. Please contact Rachael at her church email: rachael@redbrickchurch.ca which has been reactivated.

Looking for Home Church Leaders!

As we seek how to congregate in this time of crisis, our government has advised that we could meet in gatherings of up to 10 people. To that end, one hopeful way we could reconnect in the Fall through this time of COVID is through home churches! However, in order to do home church, we need leaders! If you or someone you know is interested in possibly helping us to lead this initiative, please contact Chris Hutton and we'll see what we can do in the Fall!

Important Email Coming This Week - Reopening

As we prepare for the church reopening, we are launching REALM to the congregation. This past week those church members and friends of the congregation that have email address, will receive an invitation to add a password to your REALM account.

A series of introduction videos are available by clicking here. It is very important to watch the videos and reply to the email and set up your account.

This will be how we will register to attend Worship Services in the coming weeks. Even if you don't think you will attend, please watch the videos and complete the registration process. If you have issues or questions please contact the church office.

Reopening For Those Without Email

As we look at reopening and having pre-registration for Worship Services, we know many do not use computers or have email. You can most definitely still attend a service and pre-register. You can either have someone who does have account add you as a guest. Alternatively, just call the church office and let me know, and I will add you onto the registration list. Whatever method is best for you is good for us.

Email Issues

This past week we switched from one provider to another to host our staff emails. What was to be a smooth transition, was not so smooth.

It took a little time, but all of the staff emails are working properly again. If you are having difficulty reaching anyone, please call the church office or use the direct phone numbers found on the last page of the bulletin to reach us.

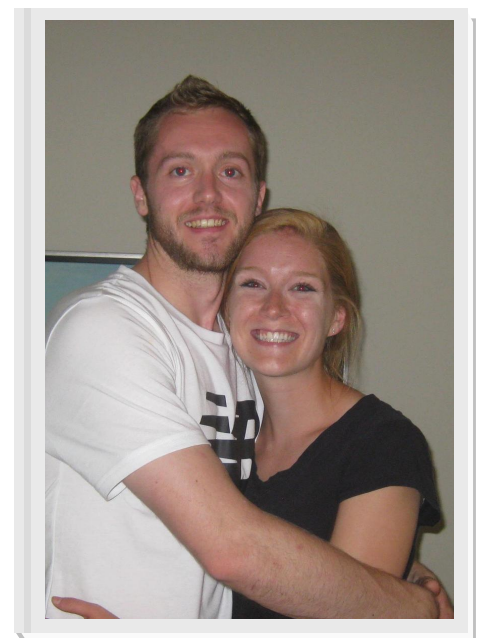

On behalf of the Pastoral team, we apologize for any inconvenience this has caused.
