Ladies Breakfast

"Breakfast of Collections" this Thursday August 5th, 9 a.m. What is your collection? Your collection hobby? Perhaps right now in the nice weather it's roses or hostas. Maybe in the evenings it's your puzzle collection or music collection. Or a glass or mug collection up on a shelf. Or is it something unusual? Tell us about it! Share your interest! Please email (or phone) Linda Friesen (Henry) your story by the evening of Monday August 2nd (contact info is in the photo directory). You will receive the breakfast email in time for Thursday August 5th at 9 a.m.

Summer Worship Parables Series by: Pastor Daniel Janzen

Parables of Jesus by Luke

Jesus' use of parables was quite a distinctive method of teaching at the time when he lived. Parables, however, were more than just a unique form of pedagogy, they were earthy and relatable, sometimes comical and sometimes polemic. And they were always powerful stories to convey what the Kingdom of God was like. Join us over the coming summer weeks as we delve into the startling parables of Jesus record in Luke.
