COVID Practices ...

March 6- Sanctuary Seating Updated

Capacity limits for worship services and other events have been lifted. Knowing that not everyone may be comfortable with removal of the physical distancing restrictions, we are beginning by opening up the middle rows of pews on the main level and the balcony seating to those who are comfortable sitting together. We are reserving the outer rows of pews on the main level for those who still wish to remain physically distanced.

if you have any questions please contact Lead Pastor Daniel Janzen.
