Men Listening, Men Talking: A One-day Retreat

Note new location: Saturday, February 21, 2026, Danforth Mennonite Church, Toronto
The story of the Good Samaritan is one of trauma and rescue. It invites men to explore their own journeys and encounters with enemies and apathy, as well as compassion and community. At this one-day retreat, we will reflect on this and more in a context of worship, prayer, conversation and listening to the Spirit. Register here: mcc.org/men-listening.

Church Board

Toys for a two-year-old: One of the newcomer families from Bridge of Hope has a small boy who needs some educational toys, preferably the kind that require hand-eye coordination and finger dexterity (building blocks, ring toss, large-piece puzzles, etc.). If you are de-cluttering, please think of us! Feel free to bring items to church and put them in the mailbox area with my name on them. - Thanks! Greta
